

Top View of Double Acting Spring Hinge Operation

Permits doors to open in either direction and automatically return to closed position.

Provides maximum protection for doors subject to normal abuse from lift trucks, due to resiliency of spring support and shock absorbing reaction of flexible mounting.

Available in size to accommodate a wide range of door sizes and weights.

Adjustable spring tension permits closing power and speed adjustment of each size spring hinge.

No hanging strip required on the frame.